

ATTORNEY POSITIONS, GS-12/13/14/15
DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE
CRIMINAL DIVISION
OFFICE OF INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS
VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT NUMBER -06-CRM-OIA-004

Open To Current Federal Government Employees Only

About the Office:	The Office of International Affairs (OIA) is responsible for securing the return of fugitives from abroad, and for obtaining from foreign countries evidence and other assistance (e.g. freezing of accounts and forfeiture of funds) needed in U.S. criminal investigations and prosecutions. In this regard, it assists state and local as well as federal prosecutors and law enforcement agents. OIA is also responsible for assuring the U.S. meets its reciprocal obligations to foreign countries with respect to extradition of fugitives and production of evidence located in the United States. In addition to handling the thousands of international extradition and evidence gathering (mutual assistance) cases opened each year, OIA is responsible with the Department of State for the negotiation of bilateral and multilateral law enforcement treaties needed to effect extradition and facilitate evidence gathering, and once these treaties enter into force, OIA is responsible for working with foreign counterparts to assure effective treaty implementation.
Responsibilities and Offered:	The Attorney(s) selected will likely be assigned to one of OIA's five Opportunity geographical teams. His/her responsibilities will include extensive, high-volume casework (international extradition and mutual legal assistance), law enforcement treaty negotiations and implementation consultations, the preparation of briefing materials for Department principals, and other international criminal law matters. These responsibilities require regular contact with U.S. federal, state, and local prosecutors and law enforcement personnel, other Department components, the State Department and various other federal agencies, as well as law enforcement counterparts abroad.
Qualifications:	Required qualifications: Interested parties must possess a J.D. degree, be an active member of the bar (any jurisdiction), and have at least 3 years federal post-J.D. experience. Applicants must also have solid academic credentials as well as excellent writing and strong interpersonal skill. Experience in the field of criminal law is required. Preferred qualifications: Experience in handling international extradition and mutual legal cases, and proficiency in at least one foreign language, are desirable.
Travel:	Periodic domestic and international travel, sometimes on short notice, is require.
